HYBRID TEA—EVERBLOOMING ROSES.

The Hybrid Tea Roses have now taken the foremost rank in the Rose Culture of this country. They are very profuse bloomers. The plants are continually in bloom, from early June until severe frosts come in the fall. They are quite hardy and will stand our coldest winters with a little protection.

Place your order early, so as to be sure to get the varieties you want.

TWO YEAR, NO. 1 ROSES

This grade of Roses is the strongest and best that can be had at any price. They are selected for their sturdiness as well as for their size. The plants offered here are two year old budded, field-grown stock and as they are grown within 50 miles of Syracuse (at Newark, N. Y.) they are especially suitable for this locality. The budded plants have been proven— with a few exceptions—to be the hardiest and the best bloomers and if planted to the proper depth, will seldom produce wild shoots.

Directions for Planting Roses.

When you receive your Rose Plants they should be planted at once, if possible. If not, the package should be moistened without uncovering the roots and keep in a cool place, or unpacked and laid in a trench, covering up practically all of the branches as well as the roots and keep wet until they are planted.

TO PREPARE THE BED—It should be dug at least 18 inches deep and filled with good soil and rotted manure mixed will together and well packed down.

My Roses will be trimmed and ready for planting when delivered. They should be planted about two feet apart.

The plants which I furnish are all budded and it is very essential that they are planted so the bud is at least two inches below the surface of the ground, after it has been leveled off. Have the hole large enough so as not to crowd the roots and pack the soil firmly down, as it is filled in. Do not allow any manure to get against the roots of the roots of the plant. Put a mulch of manure on top after planting and allow it to stay on until the plants have started to grow good ; then it can be forked into the ground.

Keep well watered !
